Verus Corporation Named Platinum Partner by WatchGuard Technologies

WatchGuard Platinum Partners represent the company's most elite resellers who bring the highest level of network security counsel and service to end users

Fridley, MN - June 16, 2015 – Verus Corporation has been named a WatchGuardONE Platinum Partner by WatchGuard® Technologies, a global leader in multi-function firewalls. WatchGuard's Platinum level is by invitation only, and represents the company's recognition of those partners who ultimately provide the highest level of network security expertise and consistent experience to WatchGuard's end user customers.

"Verus Corporation's achievement is a clear reflection of their commitment to training and certification," said Alex Thurber, global vice president of sales, WatchGuard. "Getting network security right is critical for every organization, and simply put, well-trained and well-educated resellers have happier customers and end users, with safer networks. We're proud to name Verus as a Platinum Partner and confident that they can bring the highest level of expertise to the table for end users in the state of Minnesota."

"We have been a certified WatchGuard Expert Partner since 2004, and we were named the #1 Partner in the North Central Region for WatchGuard in 2014," said Kevin Willette, President and CEO of Verus. "We are absolutely elated to continue to strengthen our relationship with WatchGuard Technologies. This shows not only the growth of our relationship with WatchGuard, but also the growth of our company as a whole. We look forward to building this relationship even more in the coming years."
